

IMS Policy of SSI technologies s.r.o.

Mission

The mission of SSI is to provide our customers with sensors solutions and products that exceed their expectations for quality, performance and value. We are engineering driven with an entrepreneurial spirit.

We help our automotive and industrial customers surpass their regulatory requirements by remaining focused on their needs, from concept through the entire life cycle of their product providing custom products that are unparalleled in the industry.

Vision

SSI is respected and admired throughout the industry for producing the highest quality, most reliable custom sensors and systems for the automotive and industrial market. Our commitment to our customers, people, suppliers, and business partners is backed up by genuine corporate integrity, a growing global presence and proven manufacturing expertise. These robust and cost-effective solutions continue to exceed the expectations of our customers in terms of performance, on-time delivery, customer service, engineering value and our approach to environment, health and safety.

Based on our Vision and Mission we set policy of Quality, environment protection and work Safety, which will lead us to achieve our targets.

Management provide space and sources to achieve continuous improvement and sources to minimize negative environmental impacts, prevention of environmental pollution, prevention a working accidents and minimizing of health damages in all processes of the SSI Technologies s.r.o. company.

All SSI Technologies s.r.o. employees are involved in continuous improvement and reduction of negative environmental impacts and contribute their responsible approach to improve work safety conditions.

Our integrated management system will ensure minimalizing of risks to our employees and to any external stakeholders in perspective of environment and work safety and occupational.

Management is committed to fulfil all applicable requirements of legislation and others requirements in quality, environmental and health and safety.

We support system attitude to all processes. Through continuous monitoring of safety risks and environmental aspects with potential impact on health of employees and environment and subsequent analysis of results we obtain grounds for next improvement our processes and activities.

In order to achieve the above written, the company management undertakes to provide its employees with necessary training courses and sources, communicate openly and fully support this IMS Policy.

10/02/2019

Tomáš Valenta
Quality Manager

SSI Technologies s.r.o
Interní a důvěrné

10/02/2019

Jeff Terkhorn
Executive Director